

Call „Irmgard Lettner and Ernst Lemberger scholarship for supporting final degrees“

This is a cooperation between the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna, Irmgard Lettner and Ernst Lemberger.

Target group:

Students of the Institute of Fine Arts (diploma studies Fine Arts, MA Critical Studies, PhD in Practice), who are in their last year of studying (preparing their final degrees) and who are socially disadvantaged will be supported. Applicants have to live and work in Vienna.

Coverage:

Fellowship holders get the possibility to live free of charge in a flat with atelier (size: 70m²; duration: 11 months from September until July 2015; location: 1020 Vienna, Karmeliterplatz 3). Accommodation facilities: Living room, bedroom (double bed), bath, atelier (full furnished and equipped). The accommodation can be used from a single person or a couple, but it is not furnished for small children. Keeping pets is not allowed. The kitchen is furnished with an electric cooker, freezer, the bath includes a washing machine. The house includes a terrace and a garden, which can be co-used by the fellowship holder. There is also the possibility to park a bicycle.

Awarding conditions:

The following documents have to be submitted:

- short description of project (max. 1,5 pages) and digital portfolio of the artist
- letter of motivation
- proof (narrative) which demonstrates social disadvantage
- a statement why the person should be supported by the thesis advisor
- students from third country nations (non-EU members) have to demonstrate a legal permit to stay

The jury consists of four professors of the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna, one external artist or curator.

Deadline:

18th of July 2014 (12:00 AM)

EXCLUSIVELY digital versions have to be sent to the following address:
ma.krenn@akbild.ac.at

The fellowship holder will be disclosed at the graduation day, Friday 27th of June 2014, at 10:00 AM in the Atelierhouse/Prospekthof. An official confirmation to get the scholarship will be forwarded not later than 25th of June 2014. The presence at the announcement of the scholarship is required.

Andrea B. Braidt
Vice-Rector for Art | Research

